

Ogden's Christmas Village

Request for Proposals

Christmas Village Sweater Design Contest

DEADLINE: May 4, 2021

Overview

Ogden's Christmas Village is an annual event that takes place between Thanksgiving and the New Year. The entire Municipal block is decorated and programmed to celebrate the festive atmosphere around the holidays. Each year a theme drives the design choices for cottage decoration, poster design, and commemorative sweatshirts.

Visionary artists are invited to be a part of Ogden's Christmas Village by submitting a design for consideration.

The winning design may receive local exposure, including but not limited to: merchandise, print ads, social media posts, website ads and web banners, etc.

Artwork/Design Guidelines

To guide artists, listed below are some words and ideas to aid in the brainstorming process:

Key Words to Guide Design

Theme to Guide Design

"O-Town Christmas"

Note: New to Christmas Village for 2021 is a large tree lit up with lights that sparkle. This tree is a Slip Bark Elm.

Design Requirements

When developing the artwork, please keep in mind that the poster design will be judged according to the following criteria:

1. Clarity and originality of message: Judging panel will be looking for innovative and creative designs that illustrates the Christmas Village tradition, as well as joyful, forward-thinking and inclusive values. Designs using an image of characters or landscape should tell a story. The Panel is not looking for static imagery.
2. Impact, memorability, and appeal to general audiences: sweatshirt design must appeal to general audiences & Ogden City (ALL age groups, gender, and other identifiers). Designs must NOT include political or promotional messaging, nudity, weapons, offensive imagery, and derogatory text. Designs must NOT infringe on any copyrights or trademarks. We expect artists to exercise their best judgement in making creative decisions.
3. Unique, positive, and non-stereotypical representation of any ethnicity or culture. Important: Artwork must be FREE of any generalizations or caricatures about any ethnicity or culture. This includes but is not limited to: stereotypical imagery, icons specific to one country, and uninspired stock visuals.
4. Design (type, color, composition, craft): Keep in mind this is for Ogden's Christmas Village. Design must contain the Event name (Ogden's Christmas Village), theme (O-Town Christmas), and 2021. Designs with no more than 3 (three) are preferred (see examples below). Limit color options to greyscale for printing.
5. Versatility for application on other media: Poster design must be functional because it will be used in advertisements, catalogue, website, and other marketing materials.
