

News Advisory

For Immediate Release:

March 20, 2017

Office of the Ogden City Council

Ogden City Council to consider short-term lease of old fire station to Family Promise of Ogden

When: Ogden City Council Meeting
Tuesday, March 21, 2017 | 6:00 p.m.

Where: Council Chambers | Ogden Municipal Building
2549 Washington Boulevard | 3rd Floor

Proposal: The City is considering a short-term lease with Family Promise of Ogden to temporarily use the old Fire Station 3 (340 Washington Boulevard) as a Day Center for homeless families. The goal of the non-profit organization is to provide assistance to homeless families to help them achieve sustainable independence. The Council will vote on the proposal during the March 21st meeting.

Feedback: Residents can provide feedback during the City Council meeting or by emailing citycouncil@ogdencity.com or calling the Council Office at (801) 629-8153.

Additional Information:

- Website: ogdencity.com/councilmediaroom
- Ogden City Council Policy Analyst Amy Mabey
 - Phone: (801) 629- 8629
 - Email: amymabey@ogdencity.com

###